DR PETER STANBURY MA PHD FRGS FRAI FRSA ASYLUM, HUMAN RIGHTS, PROCEEDS OF CRIME & HUMAN TRAFFICKING EXPERT WITNESS

WHY CHOOSE DR PETER STANBURY AS YOUR EXPERT?

BY FFEW

Dr Peter Stanbury is an experienced independent expert witness providing authoritative opinion in asylum, human rights, proceeds of crime and international trafficking matters. He accepts instructions from claimant and defendant solicitors, government agencies, and as a Single Joint Expert, delivering clear, balanced and evidence-based reports suitable for court proceedings.

With extensive international knowledge and experience across the Middle East and North Africa, sub-Saharan Africa, Central Asia and South Asia, Dr Stanbury provides expert analysis on complex cross-border issues involving country conditions, human rights, asset recovery and modern slavery.

His reports are prepared to assist the courts by providing objective, independent opinion on matters requiring specialist international expertise, with particular emphasis on political, cultural, legal and social conditions affecting individuals and organisations.

AREA OF EXPERTISE:

Asylum Claims

Independent expert opinion regarding the risks faced by individuals or groups seeking asylum in the UK, including assessment of:

- Country conditions
- Political persecution
- Ethnicity and race
- Religion and belief
- Protected characteristics
- Risk on return
- Internal relocation
- Human rights considerations

Human Rights

Specialist expertise covering:

- Human trafficking
- Modern slavery
- Child labour
- Forced labour
- Bonded labour
- Exploitation
- International human rights issues
- Country-specific human rights assessments

Proceeds of Crime

Independent opinion concerning international financial and asset recovery matters, including:

- Overseas asset tracing
- Jurisdictional challenges
- Asset recovery obstacles
- International enforcement considerations
- Cross-border investigations
- Country-specific legal and practical issues
